Miss Myra Sims will spend Thanksgiving in Nashville.

A number of the Dixie Derrick will be issued next week.

Circuit court is in session this week with Judge C. E. Snodgrass presiding.

Miss Wilkie Lankford of Hilham is teaching music at Willow Grove.

Philip Wheat, who has been suffering from an attack of paralysis, is better.

Miss Kate Stafford has returned from Hartsville, where she visited her brother.

Today is Thanksgiving day, and we should all strive to catch the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. Cora Dewberry of the recruiting force of the Sailors, is ill at the Arlington Hotel.

J. E. Elrod left Thursday morning for Eldorado, Colorado, where he will make his home.

Misses Mary and Kate Isbell and Gladys Ford are spending the week end at Laurel Hill.

Mrs. Willie Dow entertained members of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society Monday evening.

Congressman Coddell Hull was here a few hours Tuesday, leaving on the afternoon train for Nashville.

Mrs. Ofa Johnson and little daughter have moved to Clarksville, where she has three children in the Odd Fellows' Home.

Mrs. C. B. Myers and little daughter Gladys returned to their home at Stone after a two weeks visit with Dr.
 W. H. Ragland and family.

The Hipp is pulling off something extra this week by putting on a comedy play each night, by Prof. Wood and his colored troupe from Chattanooga.
 No advance in prices—5 and 10c.

S. P. Wall, little son of Sterling Wall, raised a gourd vine on an apple tree this year that bore 112 gourds, 56 of them maturing. If anyone wants a nice gourd he will let you have it for five cents.

A regular blizzard hit Cookeville on Thursday afternoon of last week and was followed by several days of cold weather, during which the thermometer registered as low as two degrees above zero.

Special Union Thanksgiving service is to be conducted at the Methodist church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock Sermon by Dr. A. J. Colie, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Everybody invited.

Postmaster John B. Dow returned from Colorado yesterday, after a most delightful trip. We print a letter in this issue that was received too late for last week, in which Mr. Dow tells of his trip.

The work of organization of the Sailors is progressing well and it is assured that the local ship will be instituted during the coming week.
 Thos. G. Hill, the field worker in charge, goes to Nashville Thursday to spend a few days with his family.

The ladies of Cookeville could attend the demonstration of Cole's Hot Blast Ranges at the J. M. Anderson Plumbing Cos. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The economy and efficiency of these ranges will be shown. Store northeast corner of the public square.

Engine 16 on the Tennessee Central was the victim of an accident Monday morning. Engineer Jesse Johnston was in charge of the engine pulling a west bound freight. When near the Sycamore out the axle of the front right hand driver broke, and began to tear things up generally. The fireman and flagman jumped off and were both injured slightly. The accident delayed the shopping train for several hours.

I wish to announce that I will have a complete stock of watches, diamonds, clocks, jewelry, etc., for the holidays, which will be open and ready for your inspection about Dec. 1st.
 Kindly reserve your orders for me, which will be appreciated.

MOTHERS IN COUNCIL
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF MOTHERS
 will be held at the PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of Cookeville

Tuesday, December First, at 2:30 p. m.
 Delegates expected from India, China, Japan, Korea, Persia, Africa, and from Europe and America. Sessions open to the public. All are invited to come.

M. E. CHURCH
 There will be preaching at the church Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Tinnon, with special music.
 Also services Sunday night at 7 o'clock when a sermon for young men will be delivered, the subject being "The Young Man and His Temptations." Special song by the quartette.

JUDD—BROWN
 Miss Minnie Brown of Nashville and Mr. Clarence Judd of Cookeville were married Sunday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ed Pippin of Double Springs. Miss Brown is a laughter of F. A. Brown of this city, and has made her home in Nashville for several years. Mr. Judd has a position here with the Tennessee Central in the freight department.

HONOR ROLL
 Following is the honor roll of Miss Mamie Morgan's department of Cookeville School of Music for the month ending Nov. 16, 1914:

Willie Baxter, Sudie Mary Finley, Mabel Womack, Roby Ayers, Nona Webb, Gladys Elrod, Mildred Darwin, Irene Davis, Estelle Farmer, Lucy Greenwood, Julia Neal, Mrs. Murphy, Mary Frank Hofmeister, Rosalind Algood, Lucile Allison.

For croup or sore throat, use Dr.
 Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

THE FIRE FIEND
 Fire was discovered a little after 9 o'clock Tuesday morning in the house on Sparta street owned by S. Hayden Young and occupied by Tom Loofer and family. E. N. King was passing and saw the fire. He immediately gave the alarm and neighbors rushed to the place. The fire originated in the roof and all the furniture was got out of the building. The house was a nearly new, seven room structure, and was insured for $600, about half its value.

ALGOOD SAILORS
 Wednesday evening, the regular sailing night of the good ship Tennessee, will find a full crew on board with several landmen in tow to be instructed in the Sailor degree. Other business of importance will be transacted, including the application for charter and the making of arrangements for the ceremony incident to the public installation of officers. This installation will take place at an early date, in connection with a public entertainment which is proposed.

Wait for the opening of Borden's holiday line of jewelry, ready about Dec. 1st. A beautiful line of jewelry, fully guaranteed.

WHITSON'S CHAPEL J. R. Nicholas happened to a very bad accident by cutting his knee.
 Miss Hester Hall returned home from Dixie College Saturday afternoon on the sick list and is no better.

Minnie Buck and Myrtle Huddleston went to Salem Sunday.

Charlie Huddleston is a regular visitor at W. C. Phyl's.

Cora Cooper visited home folks Sunday.

Miss Stella Buck is on the sick list.
 Wonder where John Hall goes as he passes here very often going in the direction of Brotherton.

Wonder how Rollie Bullock likes prayer meeting at this place, as he is present every Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridley Buck and little children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrtle Hyder visited her parents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boone Hunter and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Huddleston Sunday.

Mrs. Bettie Huddleston is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs.
 Lola Buck.

Miss Cora Lee spent Sunday with Mrs. Palo Lawson.
 Wonder what has become of Ward Little, as he has quit visiting the Chapel so often.

Billy Breeding happened to a very bad accident Friday at school. He fell down and threw his wrist out of place.
 Lonely Child.

M. T. O. F.
 Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, I. O. O. F., held a pleasant meeting on the 20th inst., W. H. Barr, N. G., presiding.
 Quite a lot of routine business was disposed of.

Bro. Dank Garrison is perhaps a little worse. Bro. J. H. York is thought to be a little better.

On account of the meeting of the Putnam County Association of I. O.
 O. F. Lodges with Algood Lodge on the 28th inst. this lodge will not hold its regular meeting on that date, but will attend the association.

The election of officers will take place Dec. 5th, the first meeting in December, at which time it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

It is proposed to celebrate the 41st anniversary of the lodge Dec. 19th. A committee has been appointed on arrangements, program, &c., to report Dec. 5th.

Two additions were made to the committee of entertainment for the good of the order.

Bro. L. A. Copeland neglected to be present and deliver a 30 minute talk for the good of the order.

All should attend our meeting on Dec. 5th, 1914.

M. W. A.
 Cookeville Camp No. 12248, M. W. A. held another good meeting Tuesday night. The Consul's station was filled by B. L. Clark as Consul pro tem.

Considerable business was despatched and a jolly time was had discussing membership plans.
 The camp is expecting the District Deputy, Mr. Litna Adamson, of Nashville to visit Cookeville in the near future and start something in the way of woodcraft.

The important item in the order of business for the next meeting is the regular election of officers. In order that a "good" bunch may be put in charge for the coming year, every member should be present. On the side, refreshments.

BAXTER SAILORS
 Miss Ruth Apple, recruiting officer of the Sailors, has returned to Baxter after two weeks illness. A gathering of young people was held on Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Braswell. A musical program was enjoyed and steps were taken toward perfecting the local organization of the Sailors, the young people of the community joining in an effort to have a local ship instituted. Thos. G. Hill, special field officer, is expected in Baxter early next week, at which time final plans will be made.

SERVICES AT PARON
 Special services will be conducted at the Paron Methodist church on the fifth Sunday in November at 10:30 a. m., by Rev. Fred B. Cox

RHEUMATISM IS SLOW POISONING
 because the entire system becomes permeated with injurious acids.
 To relieve rheumatism Scott's Emulsion is a double help; it is rich in blood-food; it imparts strength to the functions and supplies the very oil-food that rheumatic conditions always need.
 Scott's Emulsion has helped countless thousands
